*USSR: Civil disturbances--probably including strikes and riots--have taken place in the Rostov area of the Soviet Union during the past several weeks.

Although troops were called in, the outbreaks apparently have continued and the situation remains unsettled.

generally poor living conditions appear to have been the basic cause, but the disorders themselves may have been triggered by the retail price increases of 1 June.

Ghana: [Nkrumah apparently continues to be pre-occupied with his recent narrow escape from assassination.]

[Although many suspects have been arrested and interrogated, Ghanaian authorities apparently still do not know who was responsible for the incident.]

[Togolese officials furnished the weapon used in the attempt. Nkrumah indicated that he would not attend the Commonwealth prime ministers' meeting in London next month if the mystery has not been "solved" by then.]

Communist China - India: Continued tension along the Sino-Indian border is highlighted by a new exchange of Chinese and Indian claims that their respective forces were fired on in Ladakh.

Peiping charges three instances of Indian shooting during the period 21-25 August. Nehru told Parliament last week that the Chinese had fired on Indian troops several times earlier in the month. Actual skirmishes apparently did not result, indicating continued restraint by both sides. Peiping and New Delhi have recently expressed an interest in renewed border talks.
